

HOTEL IS BURNED
NEAR PESHTIGOA HARMONY CORNERS HOSTEL-RY IS NO MORE.

Early Morning Blaze in a Milwaukee Trunk Factory—Fire Panic Averted at Whitewater—Further Details of the Burning of the Orphan Asylum at St. Francis, Near Milwaukee.

Peshtigo, Dec. 12.—[Special]—A large hotel at Harmony Corners, near here, burned with all its contents last night. It was owned by Fred Skut-bizki. The loss is about $4,000, and is fully insured.

Whitewater, Wis., Dec. 12.—While a Congregational fair was in progress in Bowers' hall last night, a lamp was upset and the surrounding inflammable material was soon ablaze. There was no panic, the 200 people who were present keeping remarkably cool. The loss was nominal.

Milwaukee, Wis., December 12.—[Special]—Fire broke out about 3:15 o'clock, this morning in the third story of the Komadka Bros' trunk factory on Third street. Two alarms were sent in but the fire was controlled without a very heavy loss.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 12.—Two hundred little children were rescued last night from the burning St. Aemilianus Orphan Asylum and Boys' Home at St. Francis, five miles south of Milwaukee, and carried through a blinding snowstorm to the Convent of St. Francis of Assisi. This building, but 600 feet to the north of the asylum, was soon threatened by the flames and the children were taken from it and carried a mile westward to Pio Nono college, where they found a refuge after a most exciting night. Good discipline and willing arms prevented a most horrible disaster. The fire which threatened these 200 little lives menaced Catholic property worth $1,000,000. The blaze, however, was confined to the asylum, and by midnight the firemen and students had the flames under control.

The fire started a few minutes after 6 o'clock in the printing office connected with the asylum. It was caused by the upsetting of a lamp and spread with great rapidity. Father Kersten and the sisters, 17 in number, saw the danger and coolly prepared to get the inmates out of the building. They were all seated at the long tables upon the first floor, eating supper, when the alarm sounded. Father Kersten and the sisters hurriedly, but quietly, formed them in line and marched them out. At the sight of the flames and the crackling noise that accompanied them many of the younger children became frightened and the sisters were compelled to pick them up and carry them out. The 500 students at the seminary, which stands upon a hill about 1,000 feet northwest of the asylum, rushed to the burning building and gave most valuable assistance in carrying out the frightened children.

The asylum stands upon the lake shore and as the little ones hurried out hard flakes of snow, driven upon a southwest wind that swept in from the lake at a rate of more than 30 miles an hour, struck them in the face. There had been no time to put on wraps and the bitter cold, the blinding snow and the high wind served to increase the terror that had been occasioned by the fire.

But for the timely assistance of the many students it would have been a difficult task to get the rescued to the convent. But the students picked up the children and plunged through the drifts to shelter. Some of them carried them in their arms, others threw them upon their shoulders. Some picked up two of the inmates, carrying one in each arm. As all the inmates were boys they were handed about from one student to another with great rapidity. Once at the convent and a careful count of noses, showing all to be safe, the sisters were greatly relieved.

But in a short time relief gave way to apprehension, as great, blazing embers were being carried by the wind directly toward the sheltering abode. After a brief consultation it was decided to again remove the children to the Pio Nono college. This is a mile westward and was believed to be safe. Students and sisters trudged through the snow with their precious burdens and then the young men hurriedly returned to battle with the flames.

In the meantime Chief Foley of the Milwaukee fire department had been appealed to for assistance. He at once dispatched two engine companies and a good supply of hose. There is no fire apparatus at St. Francis and but little could be done before the arrival of the Milwaukee department.

Bucket brigades were formed, but they were almost useless, as the sisters were located right near the spot where the fire broke out and could not be reached. Then attention was directed to saving the contents of the asylum. Furniture and bedding was thrown from the windows and carried off several hundred feet and piled up on the snow drifts that line the roadway. Sacred pictures and emblems were strewn upon all sides of the building.

When the engines from the city arrived lines of hose were run to the artesian wells at the seminary and a hard fight began to confine the blaze to the asylum. The burning was well constructed and did not burn rapidly, but the names had made such progress that they could not be extinguished, and they steadily ate away until the walls fell in. The building was a three-story brick structure, 320 feet long by 80 feet wide. It is a total loss. It was valued at $100,000 and was insured for $51,000. There was no insurance upon the contents. A new addition to the building was completed a few months ago at a cost of $40,000.

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Important Resolutions Adopted Upon at Yesterday's Session.

New York, Dec. 12.—It was decided yesterday by the American Federation of Labor that hereafter a seat shall be refused to any representative whose organization has within its ranks any other organization comprising less than the total membership. This was a stab at the Brewers' union, many of whom are connected with the K. of L. It was resolved to extend an invitation to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to send fraternal delegates to the convention. The committee on resolutions reported favorably a resolution asking that all outside trades unions be invited to become affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

A resolution by Samuel Gompers against capital punishment was adopted.

A resolution was adopted reaffirming the declaration made Tuesday in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

The committee on labels and boycotts reported favorably upon the adoption of a uniform boot and shoe workers' label. This gave rise to a debate upon the proposed amalgamation of the Boot and Shoe Workers' National Union and the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union and the matter was finally laid upon the table for the day.

Delegate Elderkin of Chicago said that his idea of boycotting a man was to run him out of business entirely and not advertise him for a year and then, when he gave in, give him a union label.

The question of shorter workdays was touched upon by President McBride as follows:

"The supply of labor in this country is greater than the demand for it; hence the power of production exceeds the force of consumption. Surplus labor is used as a lever to reduce wages, lengthen the hours of labor and increase the burden of toil on the part of the employed. Our workdays should be short enough to permit the employment of every wageworker in the land. At this time the establishment of an eight-day workday would secure such a system by giving more days' work and employing more workers, by providing more leisure and less idleness, by forcing production and stimulating consumption through means of purchase being provided for all who labor.

The feeling favoring the removal of the headquarters of the federation from Indianapolis to Chicago is viewed with satisfaction by the Chicago delegates. However, they are making no open fight for the removal of the headquarters to Chicago.

The socialists are determined they shall be heard, even if the convention is against them. For this purpose they will hold a meeting Friday night at Cooper union to air their views and denounce their enemies.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

White Star Ocean Liner in Collision with a Coaster.

London, Dec. 12.—The White Star Line steamer Germanic, Capt. McKinstry, from Liverpool yesterday for Queenstown and New York, collided at the mouth of the River Mersey with a Scotch coasting steamer, and was obliged to return to this port, badly damaged. The disaster arose through the Germanic driving into the forepart of the steamer Cambrae, and she remained wedged there till 30 passengers of the Cambrae and 28 of the crew had clambered aboard the Germanic or had been rescued in boats. One woman had a rib broken. When the Germanic became disengaged from the Cambrae that ship foundered. The Germanic then returned to Liverpool, where the passengers were landed and sent to hotels.

Important Capture of Counterfeiters.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 12.—An important arrest of counterfeiters was made here yesterday. Four men, whose names are George Goodman, a German; Joseph Baltulis, Thomas Guskowski and Joseph Zdanowicz, Russian counterfeiters, are behind the bars and their counterfeiting outfit, said to be a complete one, has been taken charge of by the authorities. With the outfit was also captured nearly $500 in dollar and half-dollar pieces, all of which are considered remarkably fine imitations.

To Contest a Millionaire's Will.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 12.—It is said that the will of the late George W. Gibbs, millionaire merchant, pioneer, and philanthropist, is to be contested. A year before his death Gibbs, to avoid a contest, distributed from $800,000 to $1,000,000 of his property by deed among his relatives, his wife receiving the bulk of the property. At the time of his death his estate amounted to only about $4,000. It is now said Mrs. Hastings will contest the will and try to upset the transfer of property.

$90,000 Fire at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—Fire of unknown origin burned two-thirds of D. H. Fritts & Co.'s ornamental molding plant, Nos. 4 to 14 Smart street, at midnight, causing a loss of $90,000. One man was injured.

GHOULS RUN DOWN
AND RIOT ENSUESAN ANGRY MOB AT TOPEKA, KANSAS.

Systematic Robbery of Graves Drives the Citizens to a Frenzy of Rage—Threats Made to Burn the Kansas Medical College—Students Were in Danger at the Mob's Hands.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 12.—Popular indignation at the outrageous manner in which the graves in Rochester cemetery have been desecrated reached a crisis in North Topeka last night, when a mob began to form with the avowed purpose of burning the Kansas Medical college. The police learned in the afternoon that there was a movement on foot to assemble a mob to sack the institution, which is located at Twelfth and Taylor streets. In the evening the faculty of the college called upon the police for protection. The students were all sent home, and the college building is now in the possession of a large squad of policemen. A detail of militiamen from Battery B of this city were stationed at their arsenal to prevent a capture of the arms stored there. Upon the request of the sheriff the governor ordered the infantry company at Lawrence to be ready to respond to a call at any moment. The men assembled at the station at Lawrence.

At 8 o'clock Mr. P. B. Lillis identified the third body at the college as that of his mother, who died recently. Tuesday A. M. Drake of North Topeka, whose wife died last week, discovered that her grave had been robbed. The corpse was found at the Kansas Medical college.

On Monday I. O. Van Fleet, who had buried his wife but a few hours before, found her mutilated and disfigured remains on the dissecting table at the college. This discovery resulted in the arrest of S. A. Johnson, a student, who acts as janitor of the institution.

It was these revelations, coming one after another, that caused a wave of indignation to sweep over the city. The mob violence that was threatened last night is but a natural outcome.

While it is believed the precautions taken will prevent any violent demonstration the men in the streets are loud in their threats. All the A. O. U. W. lodges met last night to denounce the outrage and demand a full investigation to discover the ghouls.

RELIEF WORK HAMPERED.

Turks Interfere with the American Missionaries.

New York, Dec. 12.—A cable dispatch received by the Christian Herald says: "News received from Van states that fully 50,000 refugees are crowding the city from 200 villages which have been destroyed in the Province of Van. The Turks are greatly hampering the relief work conducted by Dr. Grace Kimball and her missionary associates. Mission work is necessarily suspended for the present. The schools are closed. Information comes from Bitlis that the missionaries' lives there are in danger and that they are awaiting a chance to escape to a place of safety."

The Christian Herald has telegraphed to Clara Barton, president of the American Red Cross Society, at Washington, offering to contribute $25,000 for relief, if the Red Cross assumed the responsibility of the work in that country.

Hearne Murder Trial Commences.

Bowling Green, Mo., Dec. 12.—The actual trial of Dr. J. C. Hearne for the murder of Amos J. Stillwell, the packer, who was mysteriously killed seven years ago at Hannibal, Mo., began yesterday. It will be a struggle of unusual bitterness. Each side is confident of victory, but the state has seemingly been weakened by the severance of the cases of Dr. Hearne and his wife. The jury was secured and sworn in. Of the twelve men nine are farmers, and all are among the best people in the county. The taking of testimony was begun late in the afternoon.

Republican Leaders Engage Quarters.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 12.—The inflow of telegrams asking for hotel room during the national republican convention here next June continued all day yesterday. Dr. Chauncey M. Depew will make the St. Nicholas his headquarters, and ex-Gov. Merriam of Minnesota will also stop there. Thirty rooms for the use of ex-President Harrison and the Indiana delegation have been spoken for at the Planters', and numerous requests for single rooms are being received every hour by all the hotels. Confidence is expressed that the big crowd expected can be taken care of without trouble.

American Tinned Meats Barred.

Paris, Dec. 12.—The chamber of deputies, after the discussion of the military budget, decided that, except under unusual circumstances, no more tinned meats are to be supplied to the army after Jan. 1, 1897, except such as are manufactured in France or in the French colonies.

Omaha's Mayor Obeys Federal Judge.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 12.—Mayor Bemis has canceled his offer to the Cuban sympathizers to accept money and provisions in aid of the insurgents. This action was due to the announcement by Judge Dundy that an attempt to forward such goods would bring the mayor in contact with the federal authorities.

BUT LITTLE DOING
AT THE CAPITALSHORT SESSIONS OF THE SEN-ATE AND HOUSE.

The Populists Will Allow Republicans to Organize the Senate—Secretary Morton Grants Petition of Beef Exporters—No Committees Yet—Washington Gossip.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The session of the Senate Wednesday lasted but one hour and was mainly devoted to a discussion of Senator Dubois' proposition to amend the rules so as to distribute the appropriation bills among the various committees of the Senate.

Senator Hill of New York reintroduced the amendments which he proposed to the rules in the last Congress, during the deadlock, on the repeal of the Sherman silver law, for closure and for counting a quorum, and Mr. Call of Florida gave notice that he would, on Thursday, call up his Armenian resolution. No action was had on the Dubois resolution, which was allowed to lie on the table.

Nothing being before the Senate, the clerk called the first order on the calendar, which proved to be the resolution of Mr. Allen (Pop., Neb.) to recognize the Cuban revolutionists as belligerents. Mr. Allen said he supposed his resolution would be referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, and informed the Senate that the Populist party, which was sneered at as a party of domestic grievances, stood shoulder to shoulder with the Republican and Democratic parties for the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine. A brief executive session and the Senate adjourned.

POPULIST SENATORS TO RETIRE.

Republicans to Be Allowed to Organize the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Members of the republican senate caucus committee now express the opinion that a week's time will be necessary for the completion of the work of filling the majority representation on the senate committees. The populist senators are having frequent conferences, and it is understood that there is some opposition to the program heretofore agreed upon for allowing the republicans to organize. Senators Kyle and Allen are more friendly to the present organization than the proposed change, but if the former's resolution to stand together is adhered to they will be outvoted, and in that event they will probably withdraw from the chamber after the first vote, and thus leave the republicans in position to control elections.

The populist senators held a final caucus Wednesday and decided to place a full ticket in the field for the senate offices, for whom they will vote once and then step out and allow the republicans to proceed with the organization. They will nominate Senator Kyle for president pro tempore, Hon. Thomas Watson of Georgia for secretary of the senate, and Hon. H. E. Taubeneck of Illinois for sergeant-at-arms.

MORTON GRANTS DELAY.

Petitions from Reliable Beef Exporters Are Granted.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Some time ago Secretary Morton issued an order requiring that all beef ordered for exportation shall be accompanied by a certificate of an inspector of the Agricultural department, showing that the cattle from which it was produced were free from disease, etc. In order that it might be determined whether such beef has been inspected and found wholesome, meat of all other species of animals packed in barrels, cases, or other packages, the order required should be legibly marked so as to clearly indicate the species of animals from which produced. As numerous petitions have been received from reliable exporters of beef alleging that great damage to the export beef trade must follow the enforcement of this order on Jan. 1, 1896, the secretary has directed that the order shall not be enforced until March 1, 1896.

White Men Kill an Indian.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The war department has been advised by telegraph from headquarters at Denver that Lieut. Fenton, who has been investigating the reported killing of an Indian by a party of white men near Fort Apache, Ariz., has found the body of the Indian. The lieutenant with a troop of Company G, Seventh Cavalry, is in search of the party who committed the crime, following the clew held out by the finding of their pack mules, but it is believed the chances of arresting them are small.

Brief Session of the House.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The House session Wednesday was brief and unimportant. Mr. Mitchell (Dem.) of Wisconsin introduced a joint resolution for the purchase of a statue of Victor Hugo for the Congressional Library. On motion of Mr. Harris (Dem.) of Tennessee, a resolution was passed calling upon the Secretary of War for copies of all papers relating to the railroads seized and operated by the Government from 1861-65, in order to furnish information for an adjustment of the Government claims against Tennessee.

Says the Waller Trial Was Garbled.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The Kansas Congressional delegation held a meeting Wednesday to discuss the Waller case, at which Paul Bray, the ex-consul's nephew, related the history of the trial. Bray asserted that the stenographer's report of the testimony given at the trial was incorrect. He speaks French fluently, and declares that the official interpreter at the trial willfully misinterpreted parts of the testimony. An unsuccessful effort has been made by members of the Kansas delegation to secure for Bray a position under the government, as the Waller family is without means of support.

No Committees This Week.

Washington, Dec. 12.—There seems to be no possibility now that the committees of the house will be announced this week, and the house may adjourn to-day until Monday. Speaker Reed has experienced more difficulty than was anticipated in making up the membership of the committees, owing to his lack of personal acquaintance with the new members, of whom there are 163. From a source close to the speaker the information is given out that the committees will probably not be announced until the latter part of next week, just before the Christmas holiday recess.

The Gold Reserve.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Wednesday's statement of the condition of the Treasury shows: Available cash balances, $174,612,561; gold reserve, $76,834,607.

GOOD WORK OF SAILORS.

United States Cruiser Cincinnati Narrowly Escapes Destruction.

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 12.—The United States cruiser Cincinnati and its officers and crew were within an ace of destruction yesterday. At 2:30 o'clock smoke was discovered issuing from the coal bunkers next to the magazine. The bunkers had not been opened in three months and the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion. When discovered the fire had so far progressed that the walls between the bunkers and the magazine had become red hot. When the alarm was given every man rushed to his post. The magazine was flooded and the danger averted. A few moments more and the magazine would have exploded killing every man on board and destroying the ship. Only the coolness of Capt. Johnson and the officers and the discipline of the crew averted what would have been the most appalling calamity in the history of the American navy.

HARRY HAYWARD BURIED.

Pathetic Scene at the Funeral of the Minneapolis Murderer.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 12.—There was a tragic scene at Lakewood yesterday afternoon when the funeral of Harry Hayward was being held. Mrs. Hayward was in a half-crazed condition and burst forth over the bier, repeating the words Harry had said to her. Then she went to Adry and he said: "Tell him I have forgiven him, mother."

The examination of Harry Hayward's brain gave indication of its being degenerate, though the doctors pronounced it a very fair brain. It is supposed the lengthy autobiography which Harry Hayward dictated to a stenographer last night contains a full confession of his own connection with the murder of Catherine King, as well as sensational accounts of other crimes in which he has been involved, but the real facts will not be known until the statement is printed in book form.

INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

Gov. Matthews Formally Indorsed for the Presidency.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 12.—The Democratic State Central Committee met at the Grand Hotel Wednesday. The reorganization of the State for the coming campaign was the official purpose of the conference. The silver men of the conference, who were in the minority, were not in favor of resolutions indorsing candidates. They said their understanding had been that it was to be a parliamentary gathering, and that no resolutions should be passed unless it be one for silver. The anti-silver representation favored the resolutions indorsing coming candidates. Gov. Matthews was formally indorsed by the Democrats of Indiana for President.

Gov. Altgeld Addresses Grangers.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 12.—At yesterday's meeting of the Illinois State Grange Gov. Altgeld delivered a brief address. He advised farmers to organize and look out for their own interests. The Committee on Transportation reported in favor of advocating legislation looking to a reduction in the rates of railroad transportation for freight and passengers. Resolutions were adopted indorsing the State Farmers' Institute and holding that more prominence should be given in the county institutes to household economy and other work in which the wives and daughters of farmers are specially interested.

Women Have Right to Vote.

Lansing, Mich., Dec. 12.—Attorney-General Maynard has filed an opinion in which he holds that the use of the word "and" instead of "or" in a section of the blanket charter governing cities of the fourth class does not prohibit women from voting at school elections in such cities, as was generally supposed.

Old Legislator Dying.

Wellston, Ohio, Dec. 12.—H. S. Bundy, ex-congressman from this district and father-in-law of the Hon. J. B. Foraker, is dying. He was a member of the first Ohio legislature.

TITLES ARE FAULTY
BUT CAN BE FIXEDVALUABLE PROPERTY IN IRON
COUNTY CONCERNED.

When the County Was Formed the Records Were Not Properly Entered Up—Waupeca Merchant Goes to the Wall—Marquette Man Commits Suicide.

Ashland, Dec. 12.—[Special]—There is a question as to the validity of the titles to considerable valuable property in Iron county. The question claimed is that when Iron county was created out of Ashland county the records were not properly certified to. This may cause all records to be returned and again acknowledged.

Waupeca Merchant Falls.

Waupeca, Dec. 12.—[Special]—M. Wyderosa, a general merchant here, made an assignment this morning to N. L. White. His liabilities are six thousand dollars, and the assets are unknown.

Veterans Finally Shuffled.

Marquette, Dec. 12.—[Special]—Charles Peters, who took poison a week ago, died late last night. It was his second attempt at suicide.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Tetzlaff, 67 East Milwaukee street, and is a popular young lady, while the groom is also well and favorably known. Many friends will extend warm congratulations.

Cook & Co. offer to the public in the shape of holiday gifts at exceptional holiday prices, would be a matter of deep regret to every person. The moment you enter the store, innumerable pretty things strike the eye; you ask the prices and are surprised at their ownness; you find that question which has haunted you for some time, of "what present shall I buy?" to leave you instantly; it's no trouble at all to pick out suitable gifts.

Michigan Grangers for Silver.

Lansing, Mich., Dec. 12.—The State Grange yesterday, through its executive committee, declared that the depression in business is due to the demonetization of silver and a mistaken financial policy. The report declares a belief in the parity of treatment of gold and silver of this country. Opposition is expressed to the retirement of greenbacks and the issuing of interest-bearing bonds to pay the ordinary expense of the government. The government is asked to cease guaranteeing national bank notes. When the report comes up for consideration to-day an active minority of the committee will endeavor to kill the free silver plank and a spirited fight is promised.

Big Strike Settled.

Glasgow, Dec. 12.—The great ship-building strike has been settled. The masters have agreed to grant the Clyde men a shilling a week advance immediately and another shilling advance in February. The strike has also been settled in Belfast, where the men will get a shilling advance in February. The settlement was undoubtedly brought about by the fact that both the Clyde and other ship-building firms were in danger of losing important contracts to build foreign warships, orders for which have already been transferred

AFTON WANTS THE C. & N. W. YARDS

Janesville's Southern Suburb Is Quite Ambitious—Other News Notes.

Afton, December 12—The C.
& N. W. Railway is cramped for yard room in the county metropolis,
why don't they move down to Janes-ville's nearest suburb—Afton—where they would have plenty of room for expansion, and still be in direct touch with all points. Such a move would prove the least detrimental to the Bower City of any which the company could make, should they be compelled to make a change, for her metropolitan aspirations would be enhanced many fold by the location of a growing, industrial suburb on the south, with which she is already in close communication, and, in this progressive era of electricity, is destined to be yet closer allied. Those who attended the stereopticon exhibition at Lawton's Hall last Monday evening, passed an enjoyable hour in viewing a panoramic "tour around the world."

The Modern Woodmen meet in regular session Saturday evening and elect officers for the ensuing year. The Sunday School social at the residence of Mrs. Nellie McCreas last Friday evening was well attended. Remember that Rev. E. B. Edmunds with a corps of workers, will hold a Sunday School Institute at the Baptist church here, on Thursday evening and all day Friday of next week. All are earnestly invited to attend these meetings as they are productive of much that is interesting and useful.

Superintendent David Throne, will become a resident of Afton, having leased the O. D. Antidel property here, and will move in this week. We are sincerely glad to welcome such accessions to our village as the worthy superintendent and his estimable wife. Mr. and Mrs. Albert R.
Waite returned from their three months' tarry in the east last week.
Mrs. Waite's mother, whose serious illness called them thither, is recovering. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey were agreeably surprised last Tuesday evening when a jolly crowd of Shop-piers friends unexpectedly walked in,
and proceeded to make themselves at home. Elder Oide, an Adventist minister, is holding a series of evening meetings at Lawton's hall. C. G. An-tidel, who has been quite seriously ill, is somewhat better.

BREEZY NEWS FROM TIFFANY

Busy Week at the La Prairie Metropolis,
and There Was Much Doing

Tiffany, Dec. 12—A new feed grinder now running at the station in Tiffany, is located in Day's machine shop. It has a capacity of several hundred bushels per day and has a sorn sheller attached. DeWitt Parker and wife were the ones surprised last Friday night by the entrance of a large party of young folks who made themselves lively. The Turtleville mill is being repaired for business. William H. Howard lost a large number of hogs last winter from cholera. Some of the herd recovered and were kept in the same yards, that were cholera infected. They produced fine litter of pigs and he has not lost one of them up to the present time. All seem healthy and grow finely. Some of these hogs escaped from the yards and mingled with herds that were completely diseased and dying, but not one has shown the least sign of the infection.
There are some thirty-six sections of land in La Prairie, and nearly every section can carry a cow to every ten acres. If such a condition of things existed today, hard times would affect the people but little, for every farmer,

if his dairy were winter cows largely,
would be in receipt of a handsome semi-monthly income in cash, while a home market for our 15 cent oats, 18 cent corn and 20 cent barley would be found. Doubtless the town could carry one cow to every five acres instead of one to every ten, and we would have some 4,000 cows that ought to pay $30 apiece yearly, amounting to $120,000 a year to be divided among some 900 persons of all ages about $133 apiece. Arthur Hern is still confined to his room. Some two months ago he had a toe amputated which did not heal properly, and he has not been able to use his foot since. Isaac T.
Smith will attend the old settlers'
meeting at Milton, and, we hear it whispered, will tell a story of the fair women of the early days, the girls who sang and danced and married the energetic young men who came here fifty or sixty years ago. Mr.
Smith was the first settler in the town of Harmony and has a store of reminiscence of early days. He knew Tebo intimately and insists that he was never killed and gave good reasons for his belief. How is it that they cost fifty cents more a ton to ship from Shopiere to Chicago, than if shipped from Clinton? Turkeys are in demand at seven cents live weight.
Oats bought at 16 cents insure a loss to dealers in Chicago market. Hay shipped from here brought $13 a ton last week. Large quantities are being shipped. The town supervisors are called out on the 20th on a petition to lay a road from the station north westerly along the railroad to the line between sections 34 and 35 thence due north to connect with the road running along Alex Babcock's east line. The supervisors added $100 to La Prairie town taxes the diphtheria cases adding some eighty dollars to town expenses and extra expenses for bridges consuming the rest. There were nearly 300 patrons of the Tiffany creamery and nearly three hundred thousand pounds of milk is handled monthly. The commission men state than Wisconsin butter was off in favor in November, probably from working frozen milk. If butter is to bring first class price the milk must be kept unfrozen.

FOOTVILLE REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Many Conversions Have Been Made—Other Interesting Items.

Footville, Dec. 12—The protracted meetings at the Christian church are being successfully carried on, the house being crowded every night, to listen and learn of "the way and the truth," as it is proclaimed by the Rev.
B. C. Black. There have been several confessions of faith. G. D. Silver-thorn took a trip to Chicago last week for the purpose of buying new goods.
There was quite a gathering of Foot-ville and Center friends at the home of John Honeysett last Thursday, and all returned home feeling it was good to be there. Mr. and Mrs. Saul Spoon, of Janesville, spent last Saturday night and Sunday
at the home of Finley Silverthorn.
Miss Mary Snyder of Janesville, attended services at the Christian church Saturday evening. John McGuire is improving slowly after a severe attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Davis is also improving. Wayne Kellogg had the misfortune to have one of his fingers bitten by a hog. Dr. Lacey dressed the wound and has hopes of saving the finger. The "Diamond Garment Cutters" have secured a class here. Miss Idleman of Beloit is the teacher. Elder Chase, colored, preached at the M. R. church Sunday evening, and also Tuesday evening.
Mrs. Etta Williams attended services at the Methodist church Sunday.

Quite a goodly number of young people gathered at the home of Mr.
Bailing Saturday evening. All report
a good time. Dr. Lacey has driving Ernest Parmley to do his driving. Mrs. Vesper spent last week visiting friends in Chicago and West Salem. Mrs. Web. Owen returned home from Janesville last Tuesday, having been with her sister for a few days. Miss Lizzie Harper will spend the winter in Evansville fitting herself for a dressmaker. Miss Fanny Howe has returned from California,
where she has been for the past year.
Mr. Cain is moving near Evansville, he having rented a farm there. Warren Cain, who has been in South Dakota
for the past six months, returned home last week. Miss Dora Dann is home again.

BALLONE CASE WON BY CONTESTANTS

THE BARABOO CATHOLIC CHURCH IS BEATEN.

Janesville Man Breaks the Will of His Step Father—Claimed That Undue Influence Was Used to Secure the Bequest—Victor Case Straightened Out.

Frank Ballone, of this city won his case at Baraboo yesterday and St.
Joseph's Catholic church of that city will not get the bequest made to it by Jacob Ballone.

Ballone was a step son of Jacob Ballone. When the old gentleman died, his will was found to dispose of about $7,000, of which $300 should go to the principal contestant, Frank J.
Ballone of Janesville, $300 to a niece, $300 to a nephew and $300 to another niece and the remainder to St.
Joseph's Catholic church.

Frank Ballone objected to this arrangement on the grounds that Mr.
Ballone was not mentally capable of making a will and that he was unduly influenced by the persons most closely interested in the welfare of the church. The case was tried before Judge Carpenter of Madison at Baraboo last summer and a decision was rendered as above stated yesterday.

Victor Company Case

Judge Bennett, late yesterday afternoon, made a ruling in the tangle of cases growing out of the late Hamiltonism, it being that the claims shall be paid in their regular order. Receiver Morgan's report showed the grace receipts from the sale of the Janesville Improvement company's property to be $895.88; from the Victor Manufacturing company, $4,489,
and from the Champion Shelf company $3,509.81, or a total of $8,894.79.
The report showed that the receiver had paid his expenses, including attorney fees, which amounted to $1,112.95. The receiver's fees amounted to $400. As the claims aggregate nearly $78,000, and there is but $7,000 on hand, many creditors will get nothing.

Harry M. Cator yesterday made an assignment to Attorney F. C. Burpee.

The Prettiest Window Ever Seen in the City.

There have been a great many tastily dressed windows around in the city from time to time but we think without fear of contradiction that the best of them all is the handkerchief display of Bort, Bailey & Co. A revolving wheel which takes up most of the window space is draped handkerchiefs of all kinds as is also the ceiling sides and bottom between 1700 and 2000 handkerchiefs being used in the decoration. The entire display is studded with incandescent lights which give a charming effect in the evening. The entire lot of handkerchiefs in the window is about one fiftieth of their stock the line inside of their store being immense.

that we will by all means live up to every word that you see in today's paper in that local on page five and we really believe you can depend upon it as Rosenfeld does and will sell you the goods as money is a necessary article for him just now and the only way to get hold of it is to give to the public a dollars worth of goods for 50 cents.

LOCAL UNION ELECT OFFICERS

George Hanson Made President—The Good Citizenship Meeting.

New officers were chosen by the local union at the annual meeting held at the Baptist church last night, and plans were made for the work to come.

The officers chosen were:
President—George Hanson.
Secretary—Frank Albertson.
Treasurer—Miss Jennie Spoon.
Junior Superintendent—Miss Maude McDonald.

President C. S. Cleland presided and Professor H. C. Buell led the singing, with Miss Mattie Snyder as accompanist. Prayer by George Hanson preceded Miss Kirk's report as treasurer, no other reports being received. Miss Gertrude Cobb, as chairman of the nominating committee, presented the names of the new officers, as above stated, and they were unanimously elected.

The meeting was then devoted to the good citizenship work and Miss Nettie Harrington, the chairman, explained what was wanted and needed. Prof. D. D. Mayne spoke on the subject "Where Ignorance is Bliss," and said that while officers preferred to be blissfully ignorant, the people should do their duty and men should dot be afraid.

Prof. H. H. Brown's subject was "The Latent Power," and he handled it entertainingly. At the close of the addresses, Miss Harrington prepared a plan for active work in which each young people's society will devote five minutes at every Sunday night meeting to this subject. Papers will be prepared by members on subjects chosen by the committee and these papers will be presented before each society in turn. The subjects chosen will relate to the city government and the object will be to secure purer politics.

What to Do in Case of Accidents.

The following short rules for action in cases of accident, will be found useful to remember. For dust in the eyes avoid rubbing—dash water in them; remove cinders, etc., with the round point of a lead pencil. Remove wax from the ear with tepid water; never put a hard instrument in the ear. If any artery is cut compress above the wound; if a vein is cut, compress below. If choking, get on all fours and cough. For slight burns dip the parts in cold water—if the skin is destroyed, cover with a paste of whitening and water. Smother a fire with carpets, etc.; water will often spread burning oil and increase the danger. Before passing through smoke take a long breath and then stoop low; but, if carbonic acid gas is suspected, walk erect. Suck poisoned wounds, unless your mouth is sore; enlarge the wound, or, better still, cut out the part without delay; hold the wounded part as long as can be borne to a hot coal, or end of a lighted cigar. In case of poisoning excite vomiting by tickling the throat, or by warm water and mustard. For acid poisons give alkalies, for alkaline poisons give acids; white of egg is good in most cases; in case of opium poisoning give strong coffee and keep moving. If in water float on the back with nose and mouth projecting. For apoplexy, raise the head and body; for fainting, lay the person flat.

Diffident Daughters.

It is a painful spectacle in families where a mother is the drudge, to see the daughters, elegantly dressed, reclining at their ease, with their drawing, their music, their rancy work, and their reading, beguiling themselves of the lapse of hours, days and weeks, and never dreaming of their responsibilities, but, as a necessary consequence of neglect of duty, growing weary of their useless lives, laying hold of every newly invented stimulant to arouse their drooping energy, and blaming their fate, when they dare not blame their God, for having placed them where they are. These individuals will often tell you, with an air of affected compassion—for who can believe it real?—that "poor mamma" is working herself to death; yet no sooner do you propose that they should assist her than they declare that she is quite in her element—in short, that she would never be happy if she had only half as much to do.

From a Cannibalistic Standpoint.

On visiting Ireland the great traveler Livingstone was much feted. In Dublin, at a dinner party, he happened to be placed next to a literary lady, who was a very stout woman. She worried him greatly about the language of the savage cannibals among whom he had managed to live and wanted to know the sound of their language. He spoke a sentence of it to satisfy her and she answered, "Being translated, what does that mean?" "It means," he replied, "there is great cutting on you."

FATE OF A SAVAGE TRIBE.

The Story of a High Priest's Prophecy and Its Fulfillment.

At a village near the source of the Oyapok, the stream over which Brazil and French Guiana are disputing, says the Journal des Voyages, an old man of the Calcouchian tribe of Indians lives, the only person of this tribe thereabout, and he tells the story of his people's fate. The tribe was once great, he said, but for two generations it has been without a country. His people once had a country on the Tumac-Humac mountains called Paritou, and for allies the Ouayauas, the Oupourous and the Emerillous. His people were strong but the evil spirits (yolocks) cast them down. A numerous people from the east came against his people and their allies. The great priest of his people abode three days without food in the house of divinations and came out looking as if ten years had passed over his head. He reported that the yolocks had decreed death to the people. Then the braves joined their allies and the war went on. The invading people were not brave but they came in swarms until the allies were wearied with slaughter. Many years passed and many young warriors perished, while the women cried out that their lovers were dead. The first to make this outcry was Anita, who had lost her lover in the mountains of Paritou. Then the high priest cried that this language deserved death and Anita was strangled by the old women. Then the high priest at length declared that the fates had prophesied aright and it was time for the people to take flight through the forest.

"They shall eat no more cassava or tapioca," he said, "they shall no more drink caderi, they shall no more know the manioc. They shall go through the forest known only to the tiger and the tapir."

It was in the moon of Ayamouri and the people ate only grains and cacao. They started and reached the banks of the Oyapok, the long river. They passed over the rocks of a great falls and reached the great river Yngarari. They followed it toward the south.

Three months after they had left the forest of Paritou they came upon a high mountain whence flowed another Oyapok. This Oyapok, they learned, was called Agamionare. The high priest said that the people should retire here to die. So they settled there and upon the banks of another river, the Ouroual-tour, and the women hoped that the warriors would love them again and the fields would be planted. But the high priest said:

"Plant, drink, dance. Be beautiful young women, be handsome young warriors, but do not burn the pimento. It's useless, for the giant Couroup (the small pox) comes to lead you to the funeral butcher." The giant Couroup was without pity; he struck and struck again. Mothers fled their children and children their mothers. The villages were full of the dead, full of unheated cassava. The cinders of the hearth were not relighted. Nearly all of the Calcouchians died. That was long ago. To-day there remains not more than fifty Calcouchians dispersed among the Oyampis. The Calcouchians are dead, slain by war and Couroup, because the fates willed it. Fate is neither just nor unjust but is often sad.

J. B. CHANDLER WAS EXPELLED

Driver Who Has Raced Here Can Campaign No More Trotters.

J. B. Chandler, one of the best known drivers on the trotting turf, has been expelled by the Board of Appeals on two counts—"pulling" Barondale at Grand Rapids last year; and racing two horses in the same event at Dallas, Tex., last summer. Jamesville people will remember Chandler as the handler of "The Corporal," the horse that defeated Henry Cheesman's "Abnet" here last July. He also raced Minacah and Happy Jr., at the Jamesville track. Chandler became famous through the training of the pacer Online 2:04, but has been under suspicion for some time. As will be remembered the judges took him from the sulky at Detroit last year, after which "The Corporal," who had not been getting a place, won the "M. & M." stake worth $8,000, and it was thought at that time that all was not right. He will probably never be re-instated as there will be no extenuating circumstances in either case and the sentence of expulsion was entered in both.

RUNAWAYS CAUSED BY THE SWEEPER

NOW A DAMAGE SUIT IS IN PROSPECT.

Michael Dawson's New Cutter Was Ruined and He Wants Pay Therefor—Three Accidents at About the Same Time—Other News Notes of the Town.

Three runaways "in no time" tall was the record the sweeper of the street railway made at 9 o'clock this morning and complications may follow. The machine was brought out about 9 o'clock and came whirling down the street. Elijah Carter's team was standing in front of Dunn Bros. store and when the horses saw the sweeper they whirled about. Carter had a stove in the sleigh which was thrown out and broken but he succeeded in controlling the horses. Mr. Dawson's horse was hitched in of F. H. Baack's store and when the machine came along the animal broke loose and ran across the bridge. The cutter was wrecked by colliding with a telephone pole at the Myers House corner. Andrew Scott's outfit was also somewhat damaged as the result of the sweeper's trip. Mr. Dawson's cutter was a new one and he says it was completely wrecked. He called on Superintendent Proudfoot but Mr. Proudfoot says he has a right to run the sweeper. Mr. Dawson now says if the car company doesn't pay for the cutter the city will have to. He values it at $30.

In last night's issue of this paper we advertised that we were overstocked with a great stock of fine clothing. We commenced today to cut prices in every department, without regard to value. DEAF AND DUMB BOY WAS TAKEN TO JAIL

TWO FARMERS THOUGHT HE WAS CRAZY.

He Could Not Answer Their Questions and Appeared to Be Somewhat Dazed So They Took Him In Charge—Mistake Soon Learned and the Lad Liberated.

Two athletic farmers seized John Sullivan and tossed him into their sleigh at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. An hour later Sullivan was carried to the jail and the farmers demanded that he be locked up.

"He's crazy!" said one of Sullivan's captors.

But he wasn't. Sullivan, who is sixteen years old, lives in the Fifth ward, and is deaf and dumb. Yesterday he went rabbit hunting and got lost. He was wandering about the road, the farmers said, four miles from the city, in the direction of Hanover. They noticed that he was crying and acting queerly, so they pulled up the team.

"What is the matter?" one of the farmers asked.

Sullivan did not answer. More questions were asked him, but although he made signs, the farmers did not understand him.

"He must be crazy," suggested one of the men: so they lugged from the sleigh and seized the lad.

Sullivan did not know what the strange men were going to do with him, and naturally enough he resisted them. He could do but little, however, and the team was driven to the city at a brisk trot. The men drove straight to the jail. They had found Sullivan beside the road, they said, and thought he was insane. The jail officials soon learned, however, that such was not the case, and Sullivan was allowed to go. His brother-in-law, John Calisher, came to the jail for him and the lad was taken home much the worse for his experience. He claims that he did his best to explain to the farmers, while they claim that they were fully justified in doing as they did, as they thought Sullivan was surely deranged.

Beidler, traveling passenger agent for the "Queen and Crescent route." They came here to try and induce the Janesville delegation to travel over this favorite route to Atlanta but the St. Paul company won the day.

NEW YORK JEWELRY FIRMS LEVY ON GOODS.

An Inventoried Valuation of Somewhat Over Nine Hundred Dollars Reported—Bill of Sale Conveying the Property to Mrs. A. Kolle Made Two Months Ago.

D. W. Kolle's jewelry store on West Milwaukee street was placed in the hands of the sheriff this morning on attachment proceedings. The principal creditors are Hayden W. Wheeler & Co. and Fred Cauffman both of New York.

Claims amounting to about six or seven hundred dollars have been filed against the stock by creditors represented by Dunwiddie & Wheeler. Three days ago judgment was secured on one of the claims and A. K. Cutts put in charge of the store. Another judgment was secured yesterday and the stock was taken by Sheriff Appleby. Deputy sheriffs have been in possession since.

An inventory of the stock shows goods on hand to the amount of $950.

A bill of sale is said to have been given by D. W. Kolle to Mrs. A. Kolle two months ago, covering the entire stock. His New York creditors urge that this cannot stand, because he made contracts and bought goods subsequent to that time in his own name. Suit will be brought to set the bill of sale aside.

Heaven!

You can find it here and now by doing what is right and by speaking what is true. A good life is a continual Heaven. Heaven is the result of one's own integrity and uprightness. It can not be bought by the cruel shedding of innocent blood. A life of personal purity is the price we must pay. No less; no more! Heaven is that peace and blessedness which never can be taken from the pure in heart.

NO HASTY MARRIAGES.

Higher Education Makes Women Less Dependent.

"So long as the attraction of sex remains you cannot abolish marriage!" excitedly exclaimed the conservative man, according to Vogue.

"I have no desire to do away with marriage, but simply to mitigate it," replied the woman propagandist. And most thoughtful people will agree with the woman speaker that the recklessness which characterizes marriage should be moderated. It is encouraging to those whose hearts are touched by the manifold sorrows of humanity to observe that, in this matter of marriage (a most prolific source of misery to human beings), different agencies are at work, educating people to an appreciation of the gravity of the estate, and its tremendous consequences to individuals and to nations. The higher education of women has, from the start, shown a tendency to disincite those who took the college courses toward early marriages and toward imprudent ones—quite a large percentage of them moreover, taking up careers and remaining single. A recent canvass of college graduates is said to have shown that, while 90 per cent of non-college women become wives, only 55 per cent of college graduates resign their lives into the keeping of husbands. From other sources it is learned that those who marry do not swell the lists of invalid wives; neither do 50 per cent of the children born to them figure in mortality tables, as is the ghastly fact with the everyday woman's children. College women are not apt to marry a man to save him, and thus insure for children morally weak or vicious fathers; neither does love (?) in a cottage—translated in these days into a cheap flat in an unwholesome locality—appear to her finer or more winsome than the self-respecting independence of the bread-winning positions that are now within her reach. Years ago some conservative men had the perspicacity to realize and the courage to state that fuller life for women meant the lessening of her interest in marriage (the only profession her foremothers had been permitted to consider) and that she would be harder to please and more deliberate in her choice. That the prophecies have come to pass is matter for congratulation or for condemnation, according to the observer's point of view.

A WIFE'S TYRANNY.

Some of the Awful Things She Does to Annoy Her Husband.

She contradicts him at the head of his own table, interrupts his anecdote to set him right on an utterly unimportant little detail—say the date of transaction, which he makes the 7th of September and she asserts was the 8th; she interferes in all his arrangements, and questions his authority in the stables, the field, the church, the consulting-room; she apportion his food and regulates the amount of wine he may take; should she dislike the smell of tobacco she will not allow him the most transient whiff of the most refined cigarette, and, like her brother with his victim, she teaches the children to despise their father by the frank contempt with which she treats him and the way in which she flouts his opinion and denies his authority. If she is more affectionate than aggressive she renders him ridiculous by her effusiveness. Like the "Sammy, love," which roused Dean Alford's reprobation, she loads him with silly epithets of endearment before folk, oppresses him with personal attention and treats him generally as a sick child next door to an idiot.

All out of love and its unreasoning tyranny she takes him into custody—in public as in private life—and allows him no kind of freedom. Robust and vigorous as he is, she worries over his health as though he were a confirmed invalid; in the hey-day of his maturity coddling him as if he were an octogenarian bordering on the second childhood. She continually uses the expression, "I shall not allow my husband to do so and so;" or, "I will make my husband do this or that." Never by any chance does she confess his right to free action, bound as he is in the chains of her tyrannous affection. In the end she makes him what she has long fancied him to be, a backboneless valetudinarian, whom the sun scorches to fever and the east wind chills to pneumonia—one who has lost the fruit by "fadding" about the flower.—Chicago Chronicle.

Dr. Clark's Novel Idea.

The Rev. F. E. Clark, president of the Christian Endeavorers, suggested a unique plan a week or two ago. It is to start a "chain of prayer," to reach clear around the world, and in which every member of the society, if he wishes, might form a link. Each Endeavorer is to offer one short petition every day for other members and for the cause at large. Special objects may from time to time be included. To become a link in the chain requires but one condition, viz., belief in prayer.

It Was Rotten.

A tory speaker in Berwickshire held a nut in his hand and said: "This represents the whole church question. This shell is the free church, good in its way, but not the best of things. Now crack this nut and you get the established church." He cracked it and it was rotten and he had to retire amid derisive cheers.—Fun.

Blarney.

His Reverence—I can't take your cab, Pat. I see your horse has been on his knees. Pat—Arrah, yer riverence; be aisy last place he had was about that. The Blarney, he had to keep with a praste and a relleghion.—Sydney Bulletin.

THE BRAVE LITTLE PECCARY.

A Very Plucky Fighter When He Is Angry. Despite His Size.

Of the few American quadrupeds for which an intelligent hunter entertains a certain amount of respect, the Colared Peccary is one. Although he is only a little flat-sided, high-shouldered hog, wild and uneducated, yet he is a plucky fighter when angry—and like a true child of the wild west, he gets mad quite easily. It always annoys him very much that any one should dare to go a-gunning for him, and Mr. A. B. Baker, of the Washington "Zoo," points to a long slit in the side of his leather leggings as an illustration of what a Texas Peccary can do when he is very angry.

This species has a very wide range, being found from the Red river of Arkansas as far south as Patagonia. In Texas it is no longer abundant save in the low jungle bottom lands along the Rio Grande. It does not go in great droves, like the White-lipped Peccary, and it is seldom that more than eight or ten individuals are seen together. The time was when they were much more ready to fight than they are now; but, like all other dangerous animals, they have learned to fear man and his deadly firearms.—(W. T. Hornaday, in St. Nicholas.

ON THE BRIDGE,

We are headquarters for the kind of goods that Santa Claus delights to deal in. Plenty of Staple selling articles—Dolls of all kinds at 5, 10, 25, 35 and 50 cts., and up. The 25 and 50 cent ones are very popular—the best sellers. You will like them. Pick them out before they are all gone. Iron trains of cars, iron wagons, wood toys, china, plates, cups, saucers, lamps and hundreds of other articles. You can buy here with the assurance that you can do no better, as we purchased early in the season before the wholesalers advanced prices and the goods got scarce.

WANTED

Every Man, Woman, and Child in Rock County to Know That

T. J. ZEIGLER,

At the corner of Main and Milwaukee Streets, of Janesville, Wisconsin,

IS

STUCK

Stuck in his Children's Department.

Stuck in his Men's Department.

Stuck in his Overcoat Department.

Stuck in his Ulster Department.

Why Am I Stuck?

Because I was prepared for an extraordinary season and have not done nearly as large a business as I expected. It is not necessary to tell you why. Well does every farmer in Rock County know why he hasn't bought the usual amount of clothing for himself and his family this fall, as has been his habit in past seasons. Again to the point, we've got a tremendous stock of clothing of all kinds and we must unload. Thousands of dollars of seasonable clothing with which we are stuck must now be sold at the most shamefully low prices ever known or heard of. We are going to cut the life out of our immense stock and shall do a thing—that is utterly unprecedented in the clothing business in Janesville.....

What Are We Going To Do?

We are going to take several of our very best lines of goods and cut the price right in half. More than this we are going to take lines of $12.00, $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00 Men's Suits and make a MONSTROUS $7.00 SUIT SALE.

Commencing Thursday and Continuing Friday and Saturday--Three Days!

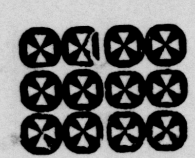

This is no fairy tale, it's business. We have got to have money. It's a chance of a life time, don't miss it.

T. J. ZEIGLER Can't afford to advertise fake prices. Oh, no! We expect to be in business next year.
